General Arthur Gets 123 for Dixie

Breeze Bally Ache For Comely Stakes

Several Grey Lag Candidates Timed by Clockers; Quill Is Readied for Seasonal Debut

JAMAICA, L. I., N. Y., May 5.—Leonard D. Fruchtman's record-smashing juvenile, Bally Ache, who demolished Red Sonnett's 17-year-old track standard of :58 for the 5 furlongs distance last week, with a sizzling :57⅘ performance over a lightning fast, sloppy surface, "blew out" for tomorrow's Comely Stakes, this morning over the Jamaica track. The bay son of Ballydam—Celestial Blue, by Supremus, breezed three furlongs in :39, after covering the first quarter of a mile in :23. Trainer H. J. Pitt did not ask Bally Ache for any of his vaunted speed during the drill and seemed highly pleased with the colt's work. While hanging up a new standard, accomplished under 122 pounds, Bally Ache posted crisp fractions of :22⅕ and :45⅕.

Trainer Oscar White had Walter M. Jeffords' stakes winner, Piano Jim, on the Belmont main track in preparation for Saturday's Grey Lag 'Cap. With jockey Bob Ussery up, the four-year-old Bernborough—Blue Denim colt, equipped with the blinkers, moved easily in fractions of :48 for the half mile, 1:12⅘ for 6 furlongs and completed the mile distance in the good time of 1:38⅗. Windfield Farm's Grey Monarch, eligible for the same stake, traveled a like distance in 1:40⅗.

Quill Breezes Half Mile

Veteran conditioner Lucien Laurin put Reginald N. Webster's Quill through a half mile drill in :48⅖ breezing, and last year's champion filly will see action in an overnight allowance event shortly. Howell E. Jackson's Calais Dover continues to train briskly for her return to the races and she spun a half mile in :47⅗. Jackson's Tick Tock, who made an auspicious return last week with a resounding win in an allowance race in the excellent time of 1:10⅕, traveled 5 panels over the Belmont strip in 1:02⅖. Joseph E. O'Connell's Cavan, winner of the Belmont Stakes last year, stepped 5 furlongs in 1:01⅕ handily while C. MacLeod's Besomer blazed five-eighths in a quick :59. Pin Oak Farm's Derrick, who may be a much better colt than he has demonstrated, posted a 1:00⅖ clocking for the same distance.

Greentree Stable's Eurasia, who caused a flurry of commotion during the Florida season with a speedy victory his first pop out of the box only to deflate this recognition in later appearances, seemed to regain his peak form this morning as he dashed 5 panels in :59⅘. C. Mahlon Kline's grass-specialist, Lofty Peak posted a 1:00⅖ drill while Cain Hoy Stable's Victory Morn was under slight restraint while completing a three-quarters of a mile stint in 1:17⅖.

On the Jamaica track, trainer Mario Padovani sent Bing Bang 5 furlongs in 1:00 handily. This highly improved racer may start in the Grey Lag. Lament dashed 3 panels in :35 handily and Andy's Beacon moved the same distance in equal time. E. Leigh Cotton's First Minister used the Belmont training track for the scene of his five furlong 1:02 work while the Cambridge Stable's good colt Pilot, had a brief 3-furlong speed test in :35. Mrs.

Tudor Era, Lincoln Road Wait Opening at Balmoral May 18

Stakes Stars Bedded Down At Washington Park; Winick, Bishop Strings Ready to Run

WASHINGTON PARK, Homewood, Ill., May 5.—Tudor Era and Lincoln Road, two "first citizens" of what should be one of the strongest contingents of stakes horses in the history of Illinois spring racing, already are bedded down at Washington Park awaiting Balmoral Jockey Club's opening on May 18.

Mrs. Herbert Herff's grass-loving Tudor Era, whose lifetime bankroll already exceeds $250,000 and whose record of stakes triumphs includes last winter's Hialeah Turf Cup in Florida, heads a formidable group of 50 horses under the direction of trainer Arnold Winick at the Homewood course.

Sunny Blue Farm's Lincoln Road, absent from the races since last year's Stars and Stripes Handicap at Washington Park, was among 14 horses quartered at Washington Park under supervision of trainer Vic J. Sovinski. Lincoln Road, best remembered as Tim Tam's shadow in last year's three-year-old classics, finished second to the ill-fated Calumet sophomore in the Florida Derby, Kentucky Derby and Preakness and won the 1958 Jersey Stakes at Garden State in 10 starts, earning $123,735.

Tudor Era to Seek $50,000 Turf 'Cap

Both Tudor Era and Lincoln Road are being readied for the lucrative season at Washington and Arlington parks. Tudor Era's first major engagement will be the Memorial Day $50,000 added Balmoral Turf Handicap, 1 1-16 miles grass test in which he tentatively is scheduled to "cross swords" with Round Table, among others.

Other Winick hopefuls include the quick sprinter, Encore; reliable Point of Order, First Fair, The Joker and the ageless claimer, Fleet Argo. In late years, Winick has been among Illinois' leading trainers and showed his heels to many top conditioners in Florida last winter.

The powerful stable of William Hal Bishop, 60 strong, arrived via express from Laurel Monday afternoon. Among ready-to-run Bishop runners are Bernburgoo, who crashed turf headlines last year with a thumping victory over Round Table in the Wright Memorial at Arlington, and the Anna, Ill., horseman's current stars, Pete's Folly and the ex-claimer, Hare Raising.

Sea Hymn, Ebony Pearl, Safe Message, Brown Hackle and Liberal Art also are among the Bishop brigade.

Sadacca String Going East

PIMLICO, Baltimore, Md., May 5.—Norman Haymaker, veteran trainer for Mrs. S. Helene Sadacca of Chicago, returned to the midwestern city last night after saddling A Dragon Killer in Monday's Baltimore Spring Purse. Haymaker will supervise the vanning of his 14-horse string of horses from Chicago to Pimlico where they will campaign for the balance of this meeting. Haymaker also revealed that Mrs. Sadacca's three-year-old—The Chosen One—who ran a disappointing 14th in the Derby has been turned out on the Sadacca's farm in suburban Chicago.

Jockey Bolin at Maumee

MAUMEE DOWNS, Maumee, Ohio, May 5.—Jockey Harrel Bolin, the Burbank, Texas, saddlesmith, joined the large riding colony in action here and accepted mounts on this afternoon's program.

VICTOR SOVINSKI—Has the stakes campaigner, Lincoln Road, and 13 others in his care bedded down at Washington Park.

Stewards' Rulings

SPORTSMAN'S PARK, Cicero, Ill., May 5.—The stewards issued the following rulings:

"Jockey Michael F. Weissman is suspended 10 racing days for careless riding during the running of the fifth race of Saturday, May 2, 1959. Suspension begins Thursday, May 7 and terminates Monday, May 18, both dates inclusive.

"Apprentice jockey James Dotson is suspended 10 racing days for careless riding during the running of the sixth race of Saturday, May 2, 1959 suspension begins Thursday, May 7 and terminates Monday, May 18, both dates inclusive."

CHURCHILL DOWNS, Louisville, Ky., May 5.—The stewards issued the following ruling:

"Jockey George P. Ryan is fined $25 for failure to fulfill his riding engagements on May 4, 1959."

SUFFOLK DOWNS, East Boston, Mass., May 5.—The stewards here today issued the following rulings:

"Exercise boy Charles Warwick, stable license No. 89, TRPB No. 70540, is suspended and his case is referred to the Massachusetts State Racing Commission with the recommendation that his license be revoked. Warwick was sentenced in the Chelsea District Court, Chelsea, Mass. April 27, 1959, to 2½ years, suspended, in the House of Correction and placed on three years probation on criminal charges."

By order of the stewards.

"A forfeiture of $50 has been placed against jockey William Skuse for lodging an unwarranted claim of foul following the running of the eighth race, May 2."

FONNER PARK, Grand Island, Nebr., May 5.—The stewards issued the following ruling:

"For interference on the back side and throughout the stretch causing disqualification of his mount, Jean Cole, from second place in the first race, Saturday, May 2, 1959, Jockey Charles Steck is suspended for the balance of this meeting."

Nine Horses Earn Preference For Ascot's Two-Mile Gold Cup

ASCOT PARK, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, May 5.—Nine horses have earned preference thus far to start in the $10,000 added Ascot Gold Cup here on Saturday, May 16, at 2 miles.

Ray Loughlin's chestnut gelding Reinspect, trained by J. D. Price, leads all qualifiers with three wins over the Akron course distance of 33 feet less than 1 5-16 miles, the distance at which horses must win to gain preference for the Gold Cup.

Others with winners preference are Clay Mouse, Blue Dare, Condor II., Blimey, Court-Me Too, Chicatoo, Lil's Flash and Near to Me. Racing secretary Charles Henry plans two more allowance races at the qualifying distance to "beef up" the quality of the starting field.

Pimlico's 11-Furlong Turf 'Cap Saturday

Langton Breeze, One-Eyed King 120; Pop Corn, Amber Diver, Jewel's Reward 118

By PALMER HEAGERTY
Staff Correspondent

PIMLICO, Baltimore, Md., May 5.—Brae Burn Farm's General Arthur, outstanding turf course development of the winter season in Florida, has been assigned topweight of 123 pounds for Saturday's 1⅜ miles running of the $25,000 added Dixie Handicap. In weights released by racing secretary and handicapper Charles J. McLennan, the winner of the Bougainvillea and Green Valley Turf Handicaps is being asked to concede from three to 19 pounds in a group of 40 nominees.

Grouped at 120 pounds are Cain Hoy Stable's One-Eyed King and Tower Hill Farm's Langton Breeze. One-Eyed King, after having finished fourth in the Bougainvillea at Hialeah, was the winner of Gulfstream's inaugural running of the Donn Handicap. Langton Breeze was winner of eight races last season and has not made his '59 debut.

Below the aforementioned trio, and grouped at 118 pounds, are Greentree Stable's Pop Corn. F. Ambrose Clark's Amber Diver and Maine Chance Farm's Jewel's Reward. The last-named is unlikely to participate but Pop Corn and Amber Diver are considered prominent prospects.

Pop Corn Won Prep Event

Pop Corn won a conditioning affair over the local grass equalling the 1 1-16 miles course record of 1:44⅗ while operating under 115 pounds. Among the Dixie prospects behind him, in the order named, were Perne L. Grissom's Innishowen, Mrs. H. L. Nathenson's Midontrail, Phillip Williams' Tuscan Flash, Mrs. S. Helene Sadacca's A Dragon Killer and E. D. Smith's Coupe de Canon.

A Dragon Killer, the most likely threat for the Dixie, drops seven pounds down to 114 for the week-end fixture and could prove formidable. He is without a victory in 10 stars this term but has several impressive efforts, including a second to Sharpsburg in the McLennan Handicap.

Among the leading prospects for the 11-furlong grass race is Brookmeade Stable's Oligarchy, who has seen little action on the grass despite having been second in the Hialeah Turf Handicap as a three-year-old in 1957. He gets in the Dixie with 116 pounds and his presence would add considerable interest to the running.

The complete list of weights for the $25,000 added Dixie Handicap to be decided at 1⅜ miles on the grass at Pimlico Saturday, follows:

Horse.	Wt.	Horse.	Wt.
General Arthur	123	Midontrial	112
One-Eyed King	120	Inswept	111
Langton Breeze	120	King Grail	111

Bally Ache Probable Comely Choice

Faces Nine Rivals In Juvenile Event

Strongest Contention Likely To Come From Ira Eaker and Conestoga at Jamaica Today

By DON FAIR
Staff Correspondent

JAMAICA, L. I. N. Y., May 5.—Bally Ache, a bay son of Ballydam and Celestial Blue, who races under the Leonard D. Fruchtman silks, heads a field of 10 better class juveniles scheduled to meet here Wednesday afternoon in the $17,900 Comely Stakes, initial two-year-old stakes of the current New York season. The Fruchtman colt will be ridden by jockey Dave Erb in the 5 furlongs feature.

Bally Ache defeated a pair of his Comely rivals in the Island Park Purse here April 22 Everett and Jean Jacobs' Midas farm colt, Ira Eaker, and C. Mahlon Kline's Conestoga. The victor shouldered 122 pounds and stepped through the sloppy footing in :57⅘, shattering a 17-year-old 5 furlongs track record. Bally Ache's margin over Ira Eaker, early pacemaker, was but three-quarters of a length with Conestoga earning the show award three and one-half lengths back of the lapped leaders.

While Ira Eaker and Conestoga are expected to give Bally Ache a stiff battle in the Comely, several others in the field have shown good speed during their initial campaigns.

Others Rated Highly

Among those rated highly are Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps' Wheatley Stable colt, Progressing, Leonard P. Sasso's Penowa Rullah, and Charles G. Raible's Pebblebrook Farm youngster, Tufanhai. Robert W. Duncan's Free Service, Mrs. Walter M. Jefford's Vineyard, Louis E. Wolfson's Harbor View Stable colt, Coach Wally, and Richard Brown's Niequest completes the probable starting band for this edition of the Comely.

Each Comely starter must shoulder scale weight of 122 pounds and if the 10 named overnight fill their engagements the winner will earn a net purse of $11,460.00.

Jockey Eric Guerin will handle Vineyard, Sam Boulmetis rides Tufanhai, Mike Sorrentino is named on Conestoga, Bobby Stovall will be aboard Free Service, and Johnny Ruane is engaged for Progressing, regarded by many seasoned observers as one of the year's top young prospects. Hedley Woodhouse, who has been showing good saddle form, will be at the reins on Niequest, Paul Bailey is to guide Coach Wally, Charlie Burr will pilot the speedy Ira Eaker, whose blistering early pace in the Island Park aided Bally Ache in establishing a new mark, and Eddie Arcaro is to handle Penowa Rullah.

Bally Ache's Island Park Purse accounting and his victory in a division of the Hialeah Juvenile, may earn him Comely stakes favoritism but he will have to give a top performance to trim Progressing, a homebred son of Bimelech and Stepping Stone. The Wheatley Stable colt won his first start in :59, carrying 118 pounds along to a three lengths graduation decision. The action displayed by Progressing was near-perfect despite the fact that he was making his debut.

Penowa Rullah, the get of Nasrullah and the Count Fleet mare Our Fleet, also made good the first time he went to the post. The Sasso colt coasted to a two and three-quarters lengths accounting in :58⅘, time he might have bettered had he been placed to sterner pressure.

Tufanhai, a son of Royal Charger and Princess Lea, is a double winner at Jamaica and has trained impressively for his initial stakes outing. The Pebblebrook Farm colt defeated Conestoga and Brickwork April 20 and, prior to that outing, won his first purse at the direct exepnse of Blonde Ruler and Rolling Clouds, completing that trip over a sloppy strip in :58⅗.

Hy-Bill-B. Heads Field Of Eight in Cahokia Test

To Engage Baker Street, Old Wheat and Eureka Bell Tonight

By J. J. HAHN
Staff Correspondent

CAHOKIA DOWNS, East St. Louis, Ill., May 5.—Hy-Bill B., a five-year-old altered son of the speedy Hy-Border, owned by Royse Graham, the Garland, Texas breeder., who finished a close second to Provoc in the Inaugural Handicap, heads a fine field of eight in the 6½ furlongs Springfield Purse Wednesday night. The gelding, one of the leading two-year-olds in this area and who has done most of his racing in Southern Illinois, probably will go postward the public choice in the main event despite his running into some tough opposition.

Scheduled to match strides against Hy-Bill B. are such good ones as Dishong & Nardini's hard-knocking Baker Street and Norman L. Crossley's Dandy Dude, the top-weighted one at 120 pounds, Sam E. Pershall's local favorite Old Wheat, Miller Potter's Gladis Gains, Eureka Bell, who races in the partnership of Mattingley & Hardick, and Carroll P. Poland's Wild Chorus.

Baker Street raced in good company at the recently concluded Jefferson Downs meeting and managed to eke out one victory at that session but Dandy Dude, claimed out of his last engagement by his present owner, turned out to be one of the most improved runners at the Louisiana course, winning three and showed improvement in each of his races. This front-running son of The Dude, a former winner of the Classic at Arlington Park, is a front-runner and he could make it interesting for his opposition.

Old Wheat entered the winner's circle three times last year and most of her wins were in this area. The four-year-old daughter of Ferd may need a race to fit her for a more strenuous effort while the same can be said for Gladis Gains who made a habit of entering the winner's circle during her 1958 campaign, winning five times for her owners.

Eureka Bell is popular with a local racing fans and gave evidence in the Inaugural Handicap that she was in need of a tightener and this four-year-old daughter of The Sultan could spring a surprise. Queen Sal and Wild Chorus, like several others entered, may need a race over this course.

Delaware Valley at Camden And Pimlico's Prep Monday May Unveil More Prospects

on more generously once Stevenson put up his bat.

With a dozen starters, this Preakness would gross $191,800 and net its winner $139,300, unless of course the supplemented Manassa Mauler, who antes up $10,000 to become eligible, should be successful.

It is possible, the field will grow in size with the decision of Saturday's 6 furlongs Delaware Valley at Garden State Park. Crafty Skipper, Rare Rice, Intentionally, Cedar Brook and Royal Anthem are Preakness eligibles who may accept in that dash. Also that the Preakness Prep here next Monday will occasion some additions or subtractions in the list of a dozen now regarded as more or less definite starters.

Royal Orbit Starts Monday

Reggie Cornell plans to start Royal Orbit in Monday's 1 1-16 miles Prep, leaving his assistant, Pete Kozar, in charge of the Royal Charger three-year-old when he planed to California late Monday. Rico Tesio, who arrived here from Louisville late Monday, has been placed in Karry Kodana's care pending the arrival of Joseph Piarulli from New York.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Person's Mosby was the only one of the resident candidates for the "run for the Black-eyed Susans" to work this morning. He was timed a handy six furlongs in 1:15, and is regarded as a possibility for the Preakness Prep.

The Brookmeade board of strategy is pleased with the comfortable ship Sword Dancer experienced from Louisville, and is bringing on the older Oligarchy from New York to fill an engagement in Saturday's $25,000 added Dixie Handicap. He has been assigned 116 pounds for this grass 1 3-16 miles and is to be ridden by Karl Korte, who is to ride Elckam's Open View in the Preakness. Open View's stablemate, Atoll, is looking for soft going Preakness day.

Trainer Eddie Cox of Sundown II. reports the Briton is to have a dress rehearsal for the Preakness on Friday, in a 1 1-16 miles event for non-winners of three at any time. This son of Hyperion and Open Country, bred by Queen Elizabeth, made his last previous public appearance in the Tim Tam Purse, preceding the Derby at Churchill Downs, and arrived at Pimlico early Monday, accompanying Royal Orbit here.

Meantime, there is quite a race between Willie Shoemaker and Bill Boland to see who gets the ride on Sword Dancer. The stable is noncommital, except that trainer Elliott Burch was "satisfied with Boland's ride at Louisville." Also wooing Sword Dancer is Willie Hartack, who was unhorsed when Easy Spur developed an ankle in the Derby.

Pre-Derby Comments

Before the Derby, Shoemaker, who had won the Stepping Stone Purse astride Sword Dancer, was quoted as saying he "would give a million dollars to ride him in the Derby, but had to ride Tomy Lee," In the race itself, he shouted to Boland: "I hope you win it!" as Sword Dancer passed his mount Tomy Lee entering the stretch. Then, perhaps for Auld Lang Syne, he went out a trifle with Auld Alliance's son, taking Sword Dancer with him. The rest is one of the most fascinating chapters in Derby history.

Following the race, trainer Frank Childs of Tomy Lee estimated "Shoemaker could have won with either horse." Nobody has disagreed. Shoemaker and Boland are fast friends, it says here, but this morning, Shoe, from his California home, was making no bones about wanting to ride Mrs. Sloane's hard hitting little colt. Apparently he is more inclined to mix buisness and friendship than Boland was when he claimed foul at the Downs.

Thus Sword Dancer momentarily has volunteers to ride him in the Preakness. This is one more than Boland counted during the stretch run in the Derby, and two more than the rules of racing, broadminded as their interpreters have sometimes seemed, will allow. Up to now there has been no indication that Boland will be taken off Sword Dancer.

Tempted Captures Garden's Hadassah

Defeats Battle Hill, Miss Orestes in Sprint Feature; Favored Mare's Beau Fourth

By BOB McCURLEY
Staff Correspondent

GARDEN STATE PARK, Camden, N. J., May 5.—The Mooring Stable's Tempted made her seasonal return to racing a winning one when she captured the featured Hadassah Purse here this afternoon by a length and half from Anthony P. Bovello's Battle Hill. Alfred T. Taylor's Miss Orestes was third at the end of the six furlongs, another two and a half lengths away and a head before Fred P. Meagher's favored Mare's Beau.

Second choice with the crowd of 18,195, Tempted, a four-year-old Half Crown filly, returned $11.00 for her winning effort, which she accomplished in 1:12, best time of the day for the distance. She displayed a fondness for the local surface in her final start of 1958 by winning the Jersey Belle Stakes. Prior to that effort, her connections had confined her activities to the New York and Delaware circuits.

The field for the Hadassah was replete with eligibles for the $25,000-added Colonial Handicap, which is to be run here Saturday, May 16. However, Tempted took much of the luster off that event as she is not eligible for that stake and beat many of its leading lights today.

Jodi Duels Battle Hill

The Audley Farm's Jodi was first to show as the field left the six-furlong chute. She was quickly joined from the inside by Battle Hill and the latter moved through to take the lead as they raced into the far turn. Battle Hill improved her advantage to a length and a half with a quarter of a mile to go, but began switching her tail as she turned into the stretch, Apprentice Jimmy Kirk meanwhile had Tempted away in good order and under light restraint about a length or two back. Leaving the final turn, Kirk called on his mount for more speed and she responded readily, running down Battle Hill in mid-stretch and gradually drawing clear.

Mare's Beau, the 13-10 favorite who had won the Capitol Handicap at Laurel recently, had no apparent excuse.

Jockey Jack Leonard was the star of the early races as he notched a triple through the first five races. The 18-year-old rider from Renton, Wash., who is under contract to the Mrs. Ada L. Rice stable, began his streak with the Jeff-Lin Stable's Santurron in the second race. The victory, which was worth $8.40 straight, put the finishing touches to a 12-3 Daily Double worth $61.00. Walter J. Susini's Jouett S., a $9.60 chance, won the 6-furlong opener.

Leonard was out of the money in the third race, a 5-furlong dash for maiden two-year-olds which was won by the long-shot Fairlawn Rocky. With apprentice Anthony Presti in the irons, the Fairlawn Farm colorbearer was up for a head victory over Irvin David's Chalvedele. Cecil B. Fischbach's Ft. Dodge was third. Henry Block, who was astride Chalvedele, claimed foul against Presti for alleged interference in the drive but the stewards disallowed the claim. The red board was lit amid a roar of ohs and ahs as Fairlawn Rocky returned $94.00.

Crafty Belle, a three-year-old Crafty Admiral filly, carried Leonard to his second victory of the day when she captured the 6-furlong fourth race by a length from Mrs. John P. Jones' favored Grand-dad Oaks. It was another three parts of a length back to Bernadotte Stable's Outline. Crafty Belle, who was timed in 1:12⅕, returned $12.60.

Leonard came right back to take the fifth race by a half-length with Modan Stable's Lubrette as John W. Kane's Toni Mia, who held the lead racing into the stretch, finished second a similar distance before Russell Carrier's Red Trouble. Lubrette, who covered the 1 1-16 miles in 1:48⅗, returned $11.20.

Cahokia Restricts Afternoon Racing to Two Holidays

CAHOKIA DOWNS, East St. Louis, Ill., May 5.—The remaining Saturday afternoon programs, with the exception of Saturday, May 30, and Saturday, July 4, have been canceled, it was announced today. As a result the May 9, 16 and 23 programs will revert to night racing as are all weekday programs at this track.

Cahokia ran last Saturday in the afternoon and the attendance of 4,243 and mutuel play of $208,578 was below expectation.

Winner—B. g, by Revoked—Safari, by Jacopo, trained by G. L. Collins; bred by Mrs. G. L. Harrison.

IN GATE—4:46½. OFF AT 4:47 CENTRAL DAYLIGHT TIME.

Start good. Won driving. TURN DOWN took command in the first few yards, was well rated throughout and finished strongly under a hard ride to hold his advantage. TRU BLU LU, slow to settle into best stride, improved her position steadily while racing between horses and finished with good courage. SAND SHARK, far back for the first three-quarters mile, closed fast while getting through on the inside. GALCIR raced up on the outside in the last quarter and came to the inside in the stretch but weakened near the end. BROTHER JOSS made up a lot of ground while racing on the far outside. RUNNING WOLF was never prominent. THE HON tired. FABULIST and BELL'S RANGE tired badly.

Scratched—1935Spt Better Goods, 1946Spt^{1} Robust Fleet.

Overweight—Tru Blu Lu, 2 pounds; Brother Joss, 1; Count B., 1; Quinap, 3; Bell's Range, 4.

Baker Rides for Sanderson

PIMLICO, Baltimore, Md., May 5. — Charles Baker, 22-year-old apprentice jockey from Washington, D. C., who broke his maiden on the last day of the Laurel meeting aboard Heiskell R. Gray's Lady Jonage, by finishing in a dead heat with the favored Elmer Reiber's Smiler, is under contract to the Maryland trainer James J. Rowan. Baker's engagements at Pimlico are being handled by Charles Sanderson, who also has the journeyman jockey, Donald Nobrega.

BLOODLINES

By LEON RASMUSSEN

the sire of Tabriz, the sire of Taboun, so therefore King of Basrah is a three-parts brother to Taboun. Mrs. Elizabeth Person, owner of Llangollen Farm, imported a chestnut mare by Dastur out of Queen of Basrah recently. She is named Darabai and in 1958 produced a bay colt by the Nasrullah horse Mister Gus. Queen of Basrah's dam, Queen of Baghdad, is also the dam of Noor, and Ellsworth stands Noor's full brother, General Cariappa, at his Chino farm.

Queen of Scots, the dam of Queen of Baghdad, also produced Castagnola, by Bois Roussel, and Castagnola bred the noted English stakes star, Zucchero, by Nasrullah, another of Queen of Scots' daughters, Queen of Simla, winner of the Queen Mary Stakes, foaled Queen of Himalaya, now owned by Ellsworth. Queen of Himalaya is intensely inbred, being by Blenheim II.'s son, Donatello II. out of Blenheim II.'s daughter, Queen of Simla. Queen of Scots' third dam is the immortal Sceptre, winner of four classics, both the Guineas, the Oaks and the St. Leger.

Prince Aly's Paraguana, who was third in the Thousand Guineas as the favorite, is closely related to the Ellsworth-owned Sayegh. Paraguana is by Prince Chevalier—Tayeh, by Tehran, while Sayegh is by Sicambre, a son Prince Bio, out of Tayeh. The next dam of these two is Rivaz, by Nearco, a full sister to Nasrullah. Rivaz is now in this country as is Nasrullah's half sister, the top class producer Dodoma II., and Malindi, another full sister to Nearco's most famous son.

Malindi this year foaled a filly by Swaps at Darby Dan farm. Olin Gentry, efficent and cooperative farm manager of Mr. and Mrs. John Galbreath's Lexington establishment, showed me this royally-bred youngster last week and she is, truly, something to see. In fact, Swaps is getting beautiful foals and his yearlings—at least those I talent scouted at Darby Dan—surely look like runners. Regarding Swaps, he was paid about as high a compliment as can be paid by several Kentucky hardboots when they called the California-bred "The best looking stallion in the Blue Grass."

Trainer Walter Fischer Was Former Cavalryman

MAUMEE DOWNS, Maumee, Ohio, May 5.—Owner-trainer Walter Fischer, who is campaigning a public stable at the Maumee Downs course, entered the thoroughbred sport in an unusual way. Fischer joined the U. S. Cavalry in 1936 but it was after the cessation of hostilities in World War II. that he officially became a member of the racing fraternity. Then, after being connected with the sport part time he made it his career, resigning as vice-president of a Toledo manufacturing enterprize.

During the first 28 days of the current meeting Fischer has saddled eight winners, 12 seconds, three thirds and his charges also finished fourth on a dozen occasions. He is in second place in the race for leading trainer honors, only one in arrears of E. J. Bolser, who has tightened the girth on nine winners at this session.

attended under near perfect weather conditions.

Tony Grogan rode a pair of winners on the early program as he guided Robert Jones' Colonel Lad to a half length win in the opening race and then came back with Paul Lusher's Darling Son in the fourth to register by a length and a quarter. Colonel Lad paid $4.00 while racing 6½ furlongs in 1:21⅗ for his maiden victory and a $24.40 Daily Double resulted after William C. Gillen's Bull Vixen scored a game half length win in the second under Russell Oliver's Handling.

Bull Vixen was alertly handled in the 7 furlongs dash, gaining the rail at the head of the lane and then holding off a late bid of Alas Alacrity while timed in 1:29 for the distance. The Canadian-bred daughter of Bull Page paid $10.20 individually.

Grogan's second win was scored over the 1 1-16 miles distance with Darling Son coming from far off the pace to post a $13.80 mutuel over a field of similarly Ohio-owned thoroughbreds. Darling Son was timed in a moderate 1:49⅖ for the distance with the pair of winners the 11th and 12th of the meeting for Grogan.

Winner—Ch. c, by Roi Rouge—Playful Lass, by Playtime, trained by H. J. White; bred by H. J. White.

IN GATE—4:17. OFF AT 4:18 EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

Start good. Won driving. ROYAL ROUGE sprinted into the lead at once, resisted the challenges of PISTOJA and held on with good energy. PISTOJA raced in the first flight, loomed menacing while racing along the rail through the stretch but was unable to reach the winner. PRETTY BEAU, outrun early, closed strongly in the final quarter-mile. FABULOUS HOST showed a good effort but could not threaten the pacemakers. COUNTESS C. forced the pace for a half-mile, then tired from her early efforts. DELIA GONE broke a bridle and unseated her rider and ran off for an eighth of a mile during the post parade, then raced far back when the race got underway.

Overweight—Royal Rouge, 3 pounds; Pistoja, 5; Fabulous Host, 1; Aunt Gladys, 2; Delia Gone, 4; Ima-Jay-Jay, 2.
